

October General Meeting: Unbuilt Hamilton

Hamilton author Mark Osbaldeston writes and speaks on architectural history. After producing several volumes about Toronto he returned to his roots and authored Unbuilt Hamilton. He will regale us with stories, accompanied by pictures, of the Hamilton that might have (should have?) been.

Wednesday, October 11, 2017

Lunch at noon, Speaker at 1 pm

The Round Room of the Scottish Rite Club

Lunch will feature fresh rolls and whipped butter, Chef's seasonal soup, open-faced shaved roast beef sandwich on house-made rosemary focaccia with wilted spinach, Swiss cheese and gravy, dessert and tea & coffee

Members ..... $35          Non-members ..... $40

Please confirm your attendance by September 29

Non-members attending only the speaker portion of the program will be asked to pay $10. This amount will be deducted from the membership fee when a 2017-18 membership is purchased.

Make cheques payable to: Women's Canadian Club of Hamilton

Mail this form and a cheque to:

Mary Lorimer

401-10 Ben Lomond Place

Hamilton ON L8V 2S8

Name _____

Phone # _____ # lunches _____

Food allergies _____

No postdated cheques.

No refunds.

Seating is not reserved.